MISSOURI DEMOCRACY.

Proceedings of the State Democratic Convention.

The State Ticket Headed by David B. Francis, of St. Louis—The Other Nominees, Electors, Central Committee and Platform.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Aug. 23.—The convention called to order at 12:15 o'clock by Chairman D. H. Shields.

Prayer was offered by Rev. J. T. Johnson, of Philadelphia. He believed that Jefferson City Chairman Shields read the customary call of the central committee on the evening of the convention and briefly addressed the convention. He said that he hoped the deliberations of the convention would be solely for the benefit of the Democratic party, and that individual projects and ambitions should be left to the voters.

Mr. Shields next introduced Hon. J. J. Russell, of Mississippi County, as temporary chairman. Mr. Russell briefly addressed the convention, concluding as follows: "The Democratic party are here to exercise the proud privilege of nominating a Democratic State ticket. Not simply to bestow an empty honor on the victor, but to place in the hands of those who are to hold in their hands the reins of the State government, and to control its affairs for years to come. We believe that the convention of the Democratic party is a great and a noble one, and we thank you for this honor and your courteous attention."

The temporary officers were completed as follows: Secretary—Thos. W. Parks, and an assistant from each Congressional district, to be named by delegates. Sergeant-at-Arms—A. W. Ewing, with an assistant from each Congressional district. Doorkeeper—A. J. Shockley. Committee on credentials, credentials and order of business were appointed and a recess was taken until 3 p. m.

The convention assembled at three o'clock, but the committee on credentials was not ready to report. While waiting for the report of the committee on credentials, the following resolutions were presented: R. F. C. Wilson, of Platte; John F. Williams, of Macon; Chas. H. Morgan, of Benton; and Nat. C. Dryden, of Lincoln. A ballot was finally taken, with the following result: Dryden, 172; Williams, 257; Morgan, 58; Wilson, 163. Morgan and Williams were declared nominated, and the nominations were made unanimous.

The members of the State central committee were then announced as follows: CENTRAL COMMITTEE. First District—J. H. Carroll. Second District—J. H. Carroll. Third District—J. B. Thomas. Fourth District—W. W. Ramsey. Fifth District—Emmet Phillips. Sixth District—J. H. Carroll. Seventh District—Richard Dalton. Eighth District—E. A. Noonan. Ninth District—C. M. McGowan.
